

Letitia Hester (née Hall)

<https://hmwilson.archives.org.au/people/letitia-hester.html>

July 12, 2026

Contents

Biography	1
References	1

Biography

Laetitia Hall was born in 1822, and baptized on the same day as two of her siblings, on 6 May 1827 at St Mary's church in Lambeth.^[2]

Married Robert on 5 May 1847.^[2]

She had twins Robert Edward and Frederick Henry Valentine in 1854. In January of that year she was travelling and was taken ill at “the 47 mile tree on the Albany Road”, and stayed there for some weeks until she gave birth on February 18. Afterwards, her brother Anderton took her and the infants by bullock cart to the family's farm at Wongong¹.^[3]

Laetitia died in 1877 and is buried at East Perth Cemeteries in the Hall grave.^{[2][4]}

References

- [1] Sarah Theodosia and the Hall Family (Item 352, 1994)
- [2] Hall Family Tree by Margaret Wilson.
- [3] Henry Edward Hall to W.S. Hall, c.1854.
- [4] Headstone of the Hall family grave at East Perth Cemeteries. Commons file East Perth Cemeteries 2022-08-14 (03).jpg.

¹<https://hmwilson.archives.org.au/tags/wongong.html>